A Legal Line for North Dakota Victims

About ALL ND Victims

A Legal Line for North Dakota Victims (ALL ND Victims) provides support and improves access to legal information for victims and survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, and other related crimes.

The legal line offers legal information, resources, and referrals to victims of crime in North Dakota and may also provide direct representation for:

- Domestic Violence Protection Orders (DVPOs)
- Sexual Assault Restraining Orders (SAROs)
- Disorderly Conduct Restraining Orders (DCROs)
- Eviction matters
- Marsy's rights
- Family law matters

“ I could not thank [ALL ND Victims attorney] enough! He truly cares about my situation!... My children and myself are forever grateful for [the] two amazing, caring, wonderful individuals [who helped] when I didn't know where to turn! Thank you from the bottom of our hearts!

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Who can call the legal line?

A: Victims and survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, and other related crimes may call. Rule 34 Advocates, employees of DV/SA advocacy centers, Victim Witness Coordinators, and State's Attorneys may also call.

Q: What should I expect when contacting ALL ND Victims?

A: ALL ND Victims can be reached by calling 701.223.7610. A few brief questions will be asked to determine legal needs and if the matter falls within the scope of the legal line. If the matter is determined to be a qualifying issue, an intake questionnaire will be conducted. This will help the ALL ND Victims team further assess what your legal needs are.

Q: Is there a cost for receiving legal services from ALL ND Victims?

A: No, there is no cost for receiving services. All services provided by ALL ND Victims are FREE and confidential.

Q: What types of questions can be asked?

A: : General questions about many areas of law, including domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, family law, and landlord/tenant issues can be asked.
